

Arena 001 daybed

Design Gordon Guillaumier

Technical Information

Halfway between a large garden lounger and a designer outdoor sofa, ARENA opens a new chapter within RODA universe. Designed by Gordon Guillaumier, the range is currently represented by a single element of outdoor furniture, an "eye catcher" that not only satisfies your eyesight, but also the need to have a "hybrid" seat with great comfort, where you can relax, take sun, read a book in an informal and casual way, a unique product of great personality that finds space both in the garden living room or matches the poolside furniture.
